

Company Law Update

A quarterly update which looks in detail at the latest developments and issues in company law and regulation

Programme

09:00

Registration and tea/coffee

Companies Act 2006 update and the new regulations

This session will update delegates on the new Regulations published since June and there will also be an update from Companies House

Shareholders' Rights Regulations concerning shareholder meetings

These are now in force and it is time to focus on the practical action needed. The session will present and discuss action checklists for meeting notices, company websites and Chairman's and board general meeting briefings.

Corporate Governance

Review of the Combined Code second consultation

This session will explore the Financial Reporting Council's second consultation on the review of the Combined Code on Corporate Governance Code and the resulting response.

Next steps for the Combined Code Review

Steps and timings for the next stage of the Review leading to an amended Code,

ICSA Board Behaviors Report

This session will consider the Board Behaviors Report submitted to the Walker Review by ICSA and how it has been received.

Legal and regulatory update

This session will cover a general round up of other legal issues currently impacting company secretaries and directors

12:30

Close